The Thirtieth Curriculum Colloquium

University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine

1:30pm-6:30pm, February 6, 2025, West Wing Auditorium

Title IX Training +

Artificial Intelligence in Medical Education

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

1. Explain the process of identifying and addressing Title IX issues among students
2. Describe innovative uses of artificial intelligence tools in current and future medical education environments (both classroom and clinical environments)
3. Evaluate advantages and disadvantages of incorporating AI tools in or around the curriculum to help with teaching, learning, and administration
4. Outline relevant policies and safety guardrails for faculty/students using AI

1:30p-2:30p	Title IX Training (Scaife 5785)
2:30p-2:40p	Welcome/Overview (Jason Rosenstock)
2:40p-2:50p	Dean's Welcome (Anantha Shekhar)
2:50p-2:55p	New UPSOM Education Leaders (Paul Wallach/Abbas Hyderi)
2:55p-3:00p	Update: LCME Re-Accreditation Process (Abbas Hyderi)
3:00p-3:45p	Keynote: AI for Educators—Practice and Potential (Hooman Rashidi)
3:45p-4:00p	Break/Refreshments
4:00p-4:30p	Breakouts

Session	Presenters	Location
AI and Clinical Reasoning	Casey McQuade	3704
Data Transparency and Privacy in Generative AI Tools	Alyssa Young	3706
Innovative AI-Driven Learning Approaches	Joshua Pantanowitz Ethan Wu	3702

4:30p-4:40p	Break/Refreshments

4:40p-5:10p

Session	Presenters	Location
Writing Better Learning Objectives and Test Questions Using AI	JB McGee Kathy Senko	3704
Promoting Self-Assessment Through AI	Adam Sohnen	3706
AI and Scholarly Work: Potential and Pitfalls	John Maier Patrick Buckley Meredith Spada	3702

5:10p-5:30p   Break/Refreshments: PalPITTations Performance

5:30p-6:30p   Awards Ceremony

AWARDS PRESENTATION

Excellence in Education Awards

Outstanding Professional Enrichment Course (PEC)

Carl R. Fuhrman Clinical Educator of the Year

Clerkship Preceptor of the Year

Excellence in Clinical Precepting

Early Career Educator Award

Outstanding Staff Contributions to the Curriculum

Outstanding Medical Student Contributions to the Curriculum

Social Justice Educator Award

William I. Cohen Award for Excellence in Clinical Skills Instruction

Donald S. Fraley Award for Medical Student Mentoring

Sheldon Adler Award for Innovation in Medical Education

Kenneth E. Schuit Award for the Dean's Master Educator